

The News of Nearby Towns.

MT. PLEASANT.

MT. PLEASANT, Nov. 13.—The girls of the Senior and Junior classes have issued invitations for a Thanksgiving Leap Year dance to be held in the State Armory on Wednesday evening, November 27. Gold and blue and blue and gold, the class colors, will be the decorations used. Misses Verna Schindler, Harriet McCully, Violet Crosby and Jean Smith are the committee in charge, and the affair promises to be one of the most brilliant holiday events.

Convalesces James Ellis and J. G. Thompson were in Greensburg attending court yesterday.

George Hopkins of McKeesport was a caller in town yesterday.

B. A. Gibson of Williamsport, was the guest of friends here yesterday.

U. A. Gibson of Williamsport, was the guest of friends here yesterday.

John Shultz, who was arrested for assault and battery by H. W. Giles waived a hearing and gave bail for court.

Orell Bumbach, of Endicott, Washington, member of the Endicott street home of his mother, Mrs. Bumbach.

The Boy Scout Orchestra held practice at the main street home of Clyde Kuhn last evening. A social hour followed the practice.

Miss Harriet Bowers has returned home from a visit to friends in Greensburg.

S. O. Housh and wife from Latrobe, were guests at the National Hotel yesterday.

M. H. Rose, M. L. Rose and Lawrence Farr of Greensburg, motored here yesterday.

J. H. Harman of Uniontown, architect for the United Brethren Church that is being erected here, was in town yesterday looking over the building.

David Stewart, W. D. Wiggins and W. H. Holmes of Uniontown, were callers here yesterday.

A social meeting of the Re-Union Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society was held at the main street home of Mrs. W. C. Murphy last evening.

The big musical comedy, "The Spring Maid" at the Soloson Theatre, Saturday, Nov. 16, matinee and night. Seat sale opens today. Both phones.

A meeting was held at the Nemo Club room on Church street and a basket ball team was organized to be called the "Independents." Fred King will be captain. The independent basketball team of last year played good ball but the team of this year will have better material and their practice games in the Armory are playing good ball. Games are being scheduled with some of the fastest teams in Western Pennsylvania.

Miss George of Uniontown is visiting at the Morewood street home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brown.

Misses Edith Cooper and Sarah Hood were callers in Scottdale yesterday.

Mrs. George Tedlow of Scottdale, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hood.

Mrs. S. M. Crosby entertained the members of the Young Ladies' Club Class with a fancy work party at her main street home last evening.

Daniel Weaver entertained the friends of the Methodist Episcopal Bible Class at his Diamond street home last evening. Following the business session the usual social hour and refreshments were enjoyed.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Horner left last evening for New York, where Dr. Horner will attend the meeting of the Congress of Surgeons of the United States. Dr. J. L. Burkholder of Monday evening to attend the same meeting.

Miss G. S. Bruce will leave today for New York where she will join the Horner party and attend the Princeton football game.

John L. Shibley will also go to New York to attend the football game and attend the dinner that Princeton Class of '75 will give their classmates Woodrow Wilson at the University Club, 510 street and Fifth avenue, on Friday evening.

Miss Leona Marsh is spending a few days with Pittsburg friends.

The women of the different missionary societies of all the churches united, are arranging to hold a union meeting in the Re-Union Presbyterian Church on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. George Stoner will be chairman of the meeting.

Misses Samuel and John Warden left yesterday for Pittsburg to attend a brotherhood meeting.

William Smith of Youngwood, was a caller in town yesterday.

Mrs. S. K. Eberole entertained the United Brethren Church at her main street home last evening. The regular routine of business was gone through.

Mrs. Sula Erickhill and John Warden of Lockport, motored over to see old friends yesterday.

Miss Elizabeth Turbin Fulton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fulton and James E. Fulton of Greensburg, were married by the Rev. Lorimer, pastor of the United Presbyterian Church at the Church street home of the bride last evening. Only the immediate members of the two families were present. Following the ceremony a dinner was served and Mr. and Mrs. Huey left on an Eastern trip. The bride wore a cream colored gown while the bridesmaids wore white. Many beautiful presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Huey will live in Pittsburg.

At the last meeting of the Rockwood borough Council they issued orders notifying the electric company to erect three new street lights and one cluster; one to be located on Highland street, one at the lower D. & O. crossing on Bridge St. one on Chestnut street between Main and Broadway. The street cluster will be located at the corner of Main street at the J. C. Shaffer property.

W. H. Shaffer, State forest inspector, is spending several days in Rockwood and vicinity in the interest of the Chestnut Blight Commission. The blight seems to have occupied this section this season, as there are no chestnuts at all.

E. D. Spangler of Rockwood, has been appointed as express messenger for the Western Maryland railroad and will enter upon his new duties in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Snyder returned home Monday from Pittsburg, where they spent two days visiting friends.

Dr. L. C. Leffingwell of Brookville but formerly of Rockwood, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Snyder to Rockwood where he will spend a week visiting his many friends.

If you have anything for sale advertise in our classified column.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

CONFLUENCE.

CONFLUENCE, Nov. 13.—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal church are preparing to furnish lunch for the Men's Bible Class at a banquet, Thursday night. The big musical comedy, "The Spring Maid" at the Soloson Theatre, Saturday, Nov. 16, matinee and night. Seat sale opens today. Both phones.

—Adv.

E. H. Brown, who has been very sick for some time, is improving at this writing.

D. H. Brown and family have moved into Stephen Garrett's house, Mr. Garrett and family lately moving to Morgantown, W. Va.

Russell Daulton is engineer on the C. & O. train while the regular engineer, D. F. Brown is taking a vacation.

George Mickey is back on his run as C. & O. conductor, having been off several days moving from Casselman to this place.

Mrs. Frank Koenitz of Greensburg, is visiting her father, L. S. Hall of this place.

Henry Ringer of East Pittsburg, spent a few days recently with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ringer of near town.

C. E. Bailey, operator for the Western Maryland at this place for the last few months, has gone to Greens, W. Va., to work.

Samuel Downs was in Connelville, Sunday, visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mountain and little daughter have returned from a visit with friends at McKeesport and Pittsburg. They heard the Rev. Billy Sunday preach at McKeesport, Sunday.

P. M. Hook of Somerset, was here yesterday on his way down the road on business.

Miss Gertrude Shaw left yesterday for a visit with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. O. Mattox of Fairmont, W. Va.

Carl Miller and wife have returned to their home in Pittsburg, after spending a few days at their summer home at Unanum.

Mrs. Agnes Swan and family have moved to Connelville.

A. B. Flanagan of Johnson's Chapel, was a business visitor here yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Burnworth and two children of Humbert, are spending a few days with Mr. Burnworth's mother, Mrs. Ziba Burnworth at Johnson's Chapel. Mr. Burnworth is improving from a recent illness.

John Ringer of near town, was a business caller here yesterday.

Dennis Sohney of Connelville, was spending friends in town yesterday.

Anna Thomas of near Somerset, was here yesterday on his way to Uniontown on business.

P. J. Adams of Connelville, was a recent visitor here.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

DAWSON.

DAWSON, Nov. 13.—Mrs. George Cochran, Jr. and Miss Gibson were Connelville shoppers, Saturday.

Messrs R. S. Norton, Samuel Harry and C. F. Donnelly of Connelville, drove here in the Harry automobile, Saturday, and took dinner with Alva Cochran at the Rush House.

Miss Nell Rosboro of Uniontown, is here visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Charles Boyd.

Have The Daily Courier delivered at your home or office every day.

Roy Rist has returned from an enjoyable hunting trip to the mountains above Somerset. Mr. Rist brought a large supply of the season's wild game.

James M. Closs, of the drapery department of Harne's store, Pittsburg, was here Monday on business to the Linden Hotel, the beautiful new home of Mrs. Sarah B. Cochran at St. James Park.

Mrs. Sarah A. Evans of Liberty, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Evans here last week.

Dr. H. J. Bell is beautifying his home by a new coat of paint.

Mrs. Sarah V. Price and sister, Mrs. Delany of Springfield, Ill., were Connelville shoppers yesterday.

Miss Grace Moon was a Pittsburg shopper yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Parsons and Miss Elizabeth Glendinning attended the Sunday school rally at the Bryan Methodist Episcopal church, Sunday.

John Wurtz, Mr. Lloyd Brown, spent Sunday with friends here.

The big musical comedy, "The Spring Maid" at the Soloson Theatre, Saturday, Nov. 16, matinee and night. Seat sale opens today. Both phones.

—Adv.

One of the largest and most enjoyable showers that has been given here for some time, was that of Monday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sherbondy who were married last month at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Boslett of Railroad street. Many delightful and amusing games were played; one of much interest was called "The Mystery Kitchen," which afforded much fun. Faculty, Luckey was the winner of the prize by guessing the largest number of articles the "Kitchen" was composed of. At 10 o'clock a dainty and delicious lunch was served, after which the guests were ushered down stairs to the Billiken Theatre of Mr. Boslett's, where they witnessed several very interesting pictures. At 11:30 o'clock the guests departed, thanking Mr. and Mrs. Boslett for their most enjoyable evening and wishing the bride and groom a long and happy married life.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherbondy were the recipients of many beautiful and costly gifts. The set of town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Sechler and daughter, Eva, of Hazan, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fleckenstein and daughter, Elizabeth and Josephine, and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Roslett and son, John, of Connelville.

Much interest is being taken in the plans for the Wilson Club parade here, tomorrow evening. The parties have promised a very enjoyable evening.

The Connelville 13th Regiment band will be a feature of the parade. One of the town citizens has asked to illuminate the main street with electricity. The town residents, it is said, have been asked to decorate whether for Wilson or not. These will be lots of red fire. Another special feature of the parade is the fulfillment of a bet. It now remains for a certain Republican to ride a certain Wilson man through the main streets of town on a wheel barrow.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

NEVER SUCH A REMEDY FOR PILES

It will only cost the sufferer 25 cents to prove that bleeding, itching or protruding piles no matter how chronic or how painful can quickly be ended forever.

Go to Graham & Co., Connelville; S. A. Lewis & Co., Scottdale, today, hand them a quarter, say "I want a jar of San Cura Ointment" and if you aren't satisfied—your money back.

Yes, and more, use San Cura Ointment for old sores that people say will never heal, for fever sores, for itching skin, eczema, tetter, salt rheum, chapped hands, face or lips, for ulcers, carbuncles, boils, sore nipples and broken breasts.

It draws out all poison; that's the secret of the wonderful success of San Cura Ointment, that's why it so quickly heals scalds, burns, cuts and bruises without scarring. It's best to use San Cura Soap at all times, it banishes pimples, blackheads and kills the germs of disease. 25 cents. Thompson Medical Co., Titusville, Pa.—Advertisement.

The big musical comedy, "The Spring Maid" at the Soloson Theatre, Saturday, Nov. 16, matinee and night. Seat sale opens today. Both phones.

—Adv.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Indoors-Outdoors at Work or Play a bottle of beer is beneficial

To the business man with brain-fag, it's a boon—relaxing to tense nerves—sleep-inducing—restoring.

To the lover of outdoor sports, it provides an almost instantaneous reinforcement of strength—is cooling and nourishing.

Pittsburgh Brewing Company's Beer

is just the right beverage to take on a picnic or for the fisherman's lunch. It's wholesome, delicious, satisfying.

At all good hotels, cafes and bars.

A telephone call places it in your home—on the ice.

No More CONSTIPATION

It's Me for Olive Tablets!

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards' produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and Calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing laxative.

No cramps is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated tablets.

They cause the bowels and liver to act normal. They never force them to unnatural action.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are so easy to take that children do not regard them as "medicine" at all.

If you have a "dark brown" dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and constipated, you'll find quick, sure relief by taking one or two little Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one every night just to keep right. Try them.

Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own. 10c and 25c per box.

The Olive Tablet Co., Columbus, O.—Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

The Daily Courier.

Entered as second class matter at the postoffice, Conneltsville, Pa., May 1, 1890.

THE COURIER COMPANY, Publishers.

H. F. SNYDER,
President and Managing Editor.
J. H. STIMMILL,
Secretary and Treasurer.

TELEPHONE RING.
CITY EDITORS AND REPORTERS,
Room 12, Two Bldgs., Tel. Bldg., 55, Two Rings.

BUSINESS OFFICE, JOHN AND CIRCULATION DEPARTMENTS, Bldg. 12,
One Block, Tel. Bldg., 55, One Ring.
H. F. SNYDER, Editor and Manager,
Bldg. 12.

SUBSCRIPTIONS.
DAILY, $3 per year, in per copy.
WEEKLY, $1 per year, in per copy.
PAY NO MONEY TO CARRIER, but only to collectors with proper credentials.
Any irregularities or carelessness in the delivery of papers to homes by the carriers in Conneltsville or our agents in other towns should be reported to this office at once.

ADVERTISING.
THE DAILY COURIER is the only daily newspaper in the Conneltsville area which has the largest and most complete advertising department in the city. It has special value as an advertising medium for the business community. Advertising rates on application.

WEDNESDAY EVE'G., NOV. 13, 1912.

WHAT WILL WILSON DO?

What will Wilson do?
This question is one which attracts the Democrats quite as much as it does the business interests of the country.

The latter have been led to believe that the President-elect is a "safe" man, that is to say one who will do nothing to unnecessarily disturb the prosperity of the nation; in other words he will not jeopardize the public interest for the purpose of experimenting with untried and unproven political theories, and where there is any doubt as to the wisdom of proposed new industrial and commercial policies the doubt will be resolved against them.

Wilson is already being urged to call an extra session of Congress for the purpose of revising and reducing the tariff. During the campaign Oscar I. Brownell declared to a Pittsburg audience that there would be no tariff bill considered by the Democratic Congress but the Underwood bill. The Underwood bill or bills were notoriously political bills. They were prepared without public hearings or any hearing of the people. They were written over night without information or desire for enlightenment concerning their effect. They merely expressed the old and blind and un-reasoning opposition of the South to the policy of tariff protection which has enabled the North to grow dominant and the country to become one of the greatest of the World Powers.

It is now proposed to start into a law these bills which were framed for political purposes without inquiring what will be their effect upon the country and the people.

It would seem to be the part of wisdom for the Democrats to get busy through their proper committees, and spend the time between now and the date of the assembling of the Democratic Congress in regular session, the first Monday in December, 1913, in amending the present tariff law and formulating such amendments as shall seem to be wise and equitable.

It lies within the power of President Wilson to prevent hasty and ill-considered legislation of the kind questioned by his own party, and this will be the first practical test of his official character. In view of the proclamation given this issue in the caption, it is perhaps just as well that the country should have the attitude of the President towards it as promptly as may be.

The Democratic platform demands immediate revision of the tariff downward. It is for the President-elect to determine whether this means a ruthless and reckless reduction, or a reasonable revision adjusted to equity and business conditions and completed as promptly as possible.
While the language of the platform is positive and would seem to sustain the Underwood position, yet it is greatly qualified by other language of the platform and by repeated public utterances of Wilson during his campaign and the latter interpretation may be fairly assumed by him if he has the courage to do so.

SALE RIVER.

Historic Salt River was in danger of being wiped off the political map, but the Democratic party, which has for many years lived largely in tradition, has in this day of its jubilee rescued the saline stream from oblivion and restored it to active navigation. Upon its turbulent bosom it bears over its turbulent courses the children and defiant legions in army on its way to the big water which surround the headwaters there to meditate future for years on the folly which remains from man to make the republican boat his destroyed Republican party.

There is a real Salt River and the saline river takes its name and its origin from the living stream. Salt river is a Kentucky stream. It is well known to Pittsburgh river boatmen and frequently use its mouth as an anchor during the closed winter season. The river is described by the Pittsburgh Sun as follows:
Salt river enters into the Ohio about 25 miles south of Louisville. It is a small stream, which flows from the Kentucky hills to the great water and is as tortuous, as crooked and as unpleasant to navigate as the mind can imagine. Yet it is navigable for a short distance from its mouth by steamers of light draft. Flatboats and rafts are floated down upon its bosom before the Civil war it was an important stream in the matter of bringing Kentucky whiskey down in the flat-boats to a point where they could be unloaded to a river steamer. Refractory slaves were generally assigned to the task of bringing these boats down, and the work was arduous. Salt river became a barometer among the negroes, and it was from the unpleasant character of the work on this river that "to trip up Salt river" came to be used in politics to express the destination of a defeated candidate.

While the trip up Salt river is necessarily long and laborious, and the return a matter of uncertainty, it seems that the upper waters are not wholly without good cheer. While the Democrats are rejoicing, Republicans should cheer up.

THE EAST PARK ADDITION.

The citizens of that portion of the Fourth Ward known as the East Side or Hogg Addition are having a difficult time annexing themselves to the Emeryville City.

For a matter of a couple of years they thought, and in fact everybody else thought, that they were a part and parcel of the borough. It was generally discovered that the annexation proceedings were defective, and in order to begin again and properly the district proceedings were rescinded and annulled.

Since that time, it has transpired that through failure to record a properly acknowledged plot there has never been any legal dedication of the streets and alleys. A similar case in Shy-der town is now giving the borough authorities much trouble. They wish to avoid any recurrence of such a condition, and they have asked the East Park proprietors to execute, acknowledge and record a proper plot. When this is done, the formal taking into the borough of this built-up portion of the town should be completed without delay.

In the meantime, if the Baldwin Avenue bridge is defective and too burdensome a charge for the borough to assume, no doubt the county authorities can be persuaded to do whatever is proper toward its repair and maintenance.

The East Park citizens should be protected in their rights of ingress and egress, and in their rights as citizens of Conneltsville.

RIGHTS AND WRONGS.

The Official Organ of the Young Democracy defiantly asserts the right of Democrats to celebrate a sweeping victory made possible by the division of the opposition. Nobody has at any time disputed this right, certainly no Republican; but we do dispute the right and question the propriety of the petty, persistent and insolent manner in which the Official Organ snags at the heels of President Taft with statements that are not only abusive but untruthful.

For instance, The News tells its readers that Taft does not believe there is a government by the people; that he has a contempt for the people which has been manifested upon every occasion; that he distrusts the people;
that he challenges, through his party,
the right of the people to rule and finally, that the defeat of Taft was
"a great victory for the people."

President Taft's chief crime was that he was not a politician, but that in no person why he should be hounded in defeat by such misrepresentation and abuse. The Official Organ forgets that there is always more honor in beating a worthy opponent than in overcoming a weak candidate.

The School Board heartily favors a branch library on the West Side and the Library trustees will doubtless give the matter early consideration.
The latter are subscribers to the doctrine of library expansion and the diffusion of intelligence as fast and as far as their limited financial resources will permit.

Congressman-elect Carr made a Bully run in Fayette county.

The fox-hounds of Westmoreland county will all add this week and it's a busy time with everybody, but by unanimously adopted the popular rule of Safety First.

Harmony seems to have fled from the councils of South Conneltsville.

Indiana county is making some big coal deals. One recently pulled off was for 12,000 acres, consideration $1,000,000, or about $85 per acre.
This seems to be a record price for coal, which will not compare in value with the coals of the great Pittsburgh seam.

West Newton has a Westmoreland County Commissioner by appointment.

The gallant and efficient Health Officer of Conneltsville, who will head the Democratic parade this evening has prepared in reality, politically and officially, that the Democratic party has entirely recovered from the Fever of Unrest and has been thoroughly disinfected from the Salt River microbes.

The Conneltsville banks are expanding to city proportions.

The B. & O. announces that the summer schedule will continue through the winter. The only objection on the part of Conneltsville people is that they will have to breakfast by early candle-light when they go to Pittsburg.

The vote for Congress and the Legislature in this district and county shows that the Republican party was assassinated and who the assassins were.

Sunday is never a Day of Rest for the railroads, and just now it is their Busy Day.

West Side real estate is active. It got the habit when the Western Maryland came to town.

Scottdale will celebrate, too. It is reported that a considerable portion of the Republicans voted for Wilson in order to make sure the defeat of Roosevelt. They preferred a Wilson First Term to a Soldier Third Term.

Abe Martin.

A happy wife is all a good housekeeper.
It's funny somebody don't forget himself an' shoot the rest that puts it must be tough on some fellow when the children are too big to ride for nothing, an' too little to leave at home.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

One Cent a Word.

Wanted.

WANTED—YOU TO ADVERTISE IN our classified columns.

WANTED—A WAITER. GOOD wages and steady work. CITY CLERK
LUNCH. 12nov12

WANTED—COAL MINERS. APPLY
JAMES H. CONNELLSVILLE COKE
CO., ALVERTON, Pa. 12nov12

WANTED—GOOD MAID, ONE WHO can cook. Reference required. 139
FAIRVIEW AVENUE. 12nov12

WANTED—AT THE OLIVER COKE plants Nos. 1, 2, 3, coal miners and coke drawers. Apply to foreman of the respective plants. 12nov12

WANTED—LABORERS AT NEW warehouse at Dickerson Run. $2 a day of 9 hours. Apply on job. 12nov12

WANTED—GERMAN WIDOWER, 40 years old, with 5 children, the youngest 12 years old and the oldest 17, wants German or English speaking housekeeper, willing to marry. MARTIN ROSPINK, Conneltsville, Pa. General Delivery 12nov12

WANTED—RESPONSIBLE MANfacturer desires twelve (12) lady employees. No experience required. State name, age and address. Give reference of three responsible citizens of Conneltsville. Mail written application to EMPLOYER, care Courier. 12nov12

For Rent.

FOR RENT—HOUSES. J. A. MASON,
Second National Bank building. Scottdale.
12nov12

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOM
with bath, 401 E. CEDAR AVENUE. 12nov12

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOM
with bath, 517 JOHNSTON AVENUE. 12nov12

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOMS for light housekeeping, 308 S. RICH-MOND STREET. 12nov12

FOR RENT—FIVE ROOM HOUSE with water and gas. J. C. LITTLE, 232
E. Fairview avenue. 12nov12

FOR RENT—TWO 6-ROOM HOUSES, with back, finished attic. A. W.
BOWMAN, Tel. State 70. 12nov12

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOM
with bath, 503 W. MAIN STREET. 12nov12

FOR RENT—MODERN SIX ROOM house, 810 Sycamore street. Inquire
J. H. DETWILER, Lewis, Pa. 12nov12

FOR RENT—FOUR ROOM FLAT with bath, corner 7th and State streets. West Side. Inquire FLORINCE
SMITH. 12nov12

FOR RENT—A STOREROOM ALSO a studio which can be used for storage. Inquire MRS. H. P. ATKIN-SON. 12nov12

FOR RENT—BRICK HOUSE, FIRST street, South Conneltsville. Four rooms and cemented cellar; natural gas, electric light and city water. Rent, $8 per month. Inquire of H. F. SNYDER, Courier Office. 12nov12

FOR SALE—THREE GOOD MILK
cows. Must sell quick. A bargain.
THOS. MORRISON, Dunbar, Pa. 12nov12

FOR SALE—LOT ON CHESTNUT street, Conneltsville. Price $900. Good location. Inquire BOX 100, Scottdale.
Pa. 12nov12

FOR SALE—EAST END ACRE Garden Lots at bargains. Inquire of CHARLES L. GRAY, Conneltsville
Distilling Company, Conneltsville, Pa. 12nov12

FOR SALE—TWO THOROUGHBRED Gordon setter pups, 6 months old, inquisitive of CLYDE FRIEND, Mill Run, Pa., or W. H. FRIEND, Conneltsville.
12nov12

FOR SALE—CONTRACTOR AND builder with small planting mill, gas to refuel, will sell at half cost, $1,000 cash, balance in ten equal annual payments. I made $2,400 in 8 years.
Address, BOX 1401, Pittsburgh.
Pa. 12nov12

FOR SALE—SMALL BRICK HOUSE and lot on First street in South Conneltsville, four rooms, finished cellar, natural gas, city water and electric light. One block from the street car line. South end of brick row. Price
$1,000 cash. H. F. SNYDER, The Courier
Building, Conneltsville, Pa. 12nov12

FOR SALE—CHEAPEST AND MOST convenient building lots for workmen and others. City water and electric light. Price range from $50 to $300, but mostly range around $200. Inquire while they last at the office of THE CONNELLS-VILLE EXTENSION COMPANY, The Courier Building, Conneltsville, Pa. 12nov12

Notice to Stockholders.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that there will be a meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank of Conneltsville on Thursday, December 10th, 1912, between the hours of 2:00 and 3:00 o'clock P. M., in the Directors Room of the Bank for the purpose of holding an election for the approval or rejection of a proposition to increase its capital stock from $75,000.00 to $200,- 000.00. S. T. NOBLEMAN, Cashier.

Administrators' Notice.

H. G. MAY, Attorney.
ESTATE OF HENRY ETLING, LATE
of Bullock township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania. Letters of administration on the above named estate, having been granted to the undersigned, notice is hereby given to all persons indebted to said estate to make immediate payment, and to those having claims against the same, to present them properly authenticated for settlement.
GEORGE E. ETLING, Administrator.
P. O. Address, Conneltsville, Pa. S. D.
No. 35. Docketed.

Legal Notice.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, PURsuant to a requirement of the Act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled, "An Act to provide for licensing and regulating private banking in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and providing penalties for the violation thereof," approved the 15th day of June, 1911, that Armin Kautler has made application to the State Treasurer, Secretary of the Commonwealth and the Commissioner of Banking and Insurance for a license to operate a private bank in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, for the purpose of conducting a business of banking and regulating private banking in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, for a license to do business at Pittsburgh, in Fayette county. The character of such business being Foreign Remittances and General Banking. WILLIAM H. SMITH, Commissioner of Banking. 12-20-27nov
November 12, 1912.

If You Want

RESULTS
YOU can get them by advertising in this paper. It reaches the best class of people in this community.

Use this paper if you want some of your business.

High Top Boots

For Ladies, $3.00, $3.50, $4.00, $5.00.
For Men, $4.50, $5.00, $6.00, $9.00.

For Misses and Children

$1.50, $1.75, $2.00, $2.50, $3.00, $3.50.

For Boys

$2.00, $2.25, $2.50,
$3.00, $3.50.

Selling of High Tops is now on. We have them from small size 3-in. infants at $1.50 to a Waterproof Walk-Over 18-in. Boot at $9.00.
Our lines are complete. The very best makes to select from and prices the lowest that they can possibly be made. We want you to see them before you buy. See our windows for display.

Downs' Shoe Store

SCHOOL SHOES

The rough and tumble games of school life require the best of Shoes for Boys and Girls.

A general impression exists that this is the best place to buy School Shoes.

It's a right impression, too!

Nothing but the best leathers in soles and uppers go into our School Shoes.

High cut or regular heights. Black or Tan No sensational price announcements, but the best Shoes at reasonable prices, always.

HOOPER & LONG,

104 West Main Street.

POOR ELEPHANT.

WELL, WHEN HE SAID HE COULDN'T PAY YOUNG ELEPHANT WAS FAR FROM GAY.
BUT EVERYBODY ROUND THERE BOARED
TO SEE MONK HOLD HIS TRUNK FOR BOARD.

NEVER MIND, YOU CAN Get It At Dunn's

The Store that meets the wants of every Woman at a moderate margin of profit

You can not only get it here but may be assured our goods are all we represent them to be—the best the market affords to meet the demands of the moderate and higher class trade at prices, considering the quality, decidedly below those of the other stores.
As suggestions to Fall buyers we call your attention to a few of the important articles handled by us.

Butterick Patterns for December.

Musling Underwear,
Nemo Corsets,
Comfort—Wool and Cotton,
Vests and Vellings, Sleeping Pants, Sweaters,
Fine Neckwear,
Bon Ton Corsets,
Red Star Diaper,
Mesh and Beaded Bags, DeBosch Brassieres, Stamped Linens, Embroidering Flosses, Stays and Knicker Rugs, Plaids and Fancy Combs, Table Paddings,
"M" Underwear,
Infant's Wear,
Childs Mitts and Gloves,
Leather Hand Bags, Yarns for Knitting,
Fancy Outings,
Red Star Diaper,
All Wool Blankets,
Donshire Cloth,
Children's Caps and Bonnets, Royal Worcester Corsets, Gentlemen's Gloves,
Now Percules,
Blossed Sweaters,
Curtain Straps,
Plaster Nels,
Cushion Corals,
Clocks, Sails, Dresses,
On Clouds and Linoleums, Lace Curtains,
Jewelry,
Kimono Crespes,
Fancy Crotonnes,
Children's Leggings, Carriage Robes, Flannellette Gowns,
Portiers and Draperies, Tailored Waists, Fertis Waists,
One-Piece Dresses,
Corduroy Sittings,
Baby Boy Underwear,
Cotton and Wool Challies, Curtain Fixtures,
Best Linen Crashes,
All Linen Table Damask, Best 10c Outings, Comfort Satins.

E. DUNN

N. PITTSBURG ST.

CONNELLSVILLE.

The Union Supply Company Stores Handle Only Specials.

Take our shoe departments for instance: Every pair we handle is made especially for us, and orders are given the manufacturers months in advance. We have already placed our orders for shoes for our next spring business. Think of that! Six months in advance.
The fall and winter shoes we are selling you now, were contracted for almost a year ago. They were bought when the market was low; an average of 15c per pair less than we can buy the same goods for today, and you, our customers, are getting the benefit of it. Now remember, every pair of shoes we have for men, for women, for children, even down to the tiniest baby shoes, are made especially for us according to our specifications. THAT IS WHY WE GUARANTEE THEM without any hesitation. That is one reason why we know that you are getting the best shoes that can be produced; that is why you can wear a Union Supply Company shoe so much longer than the goods any other dealer puts out. We want to call special attention to the extraordinary good value of our working shoes for engineers, tip-plemen, yardmen, roadmen in mines, knollers, pumpers, miners, etc.
Everybody knows that mine work is hard on shoes; sulphur is particularly hard on them, yet we are selling a class of shoes that lasts six months, nine months and even a year, continuous wear, at this work.
We want also to call your attention to our very excellent shoes for boys, neck-a-bouts, everyday play or work shoe; good lining; good wearing; medium priced. We can say the same for the girls. For the women we also have very desirable stylish, specially made for our trade, good fitting, good wearing shoes, and moderate in price. The very large quantity we sell is the best evidence in the world, that our goods are all right.

Union Supply Company Special Goods; Specially Made In the Furniture Departments.

You are aware that every Union Supply Company store has a furniture department. Our terms are cash, yet to accommodate some of our customers, we do some installment business. When we sell on installment, we do it as an accommodation, and we do not charge advanced prices for that accommodation; bear that in mind. Our furniture departments just now are overflowing with all sorts of staples and novelties; made especially for our trade. We can outfit your house completely from kitchen to attic; dining room; library; parlor; bedroom furniture; from the lowest grade to the most expensive. It doesn't cost a large amount of money to outfit a house comfortably; really it is surprising what a nice class of furniture and other household goods you can get from the Union Supply Company at moderate prices. Many people buy furniture from us; often we equip new houses complete, and every time our customers are quite sure they are saving money. The house furnishings consist of great varieties of carpets, rugs, matting, linoleum, mattresses, bed clothing of all sorts, pillows, pillow slips, sheets.
You cannot think of any household article that the Union Supply Company cannot furnish. We are contracting for these goods all the time.
Daily consignments are arriving at our stores. The furniture and house furnishing is one of our most popular departments. The class of goods we sell; the terms we give; the low prices we name, and the prompt courteous treatment we give, all attract and draw the people, not only to our furniture departments, but to every department in our stores.

UNION SUPPLY CO.

63 LARGE DEPARTMENT STORES,

Located in Fayette, Westmoreland & Allegheny Cos.

TABLES SHOWING RESULTS OF THE ELECTIONS

Popular and Electoral Votes for President, the Governors Chosen and Their Pluralities, the Political Complexion of the Next Senate and House.

The tabulation of the results of the election has been made, and it is now possible to get a comprehensive idea of just how the various States voted. The accompanying tables show the votes for Presidential electors in every State in the Union, giving the electoral and popular votes for Wilson, Roosevelt and Taft, and the popular votes for Debs and Chaffin. Also the make-up of the next Senate, and a recapitulation of the standing of the next House. One table shows the Governors elected and their pluralities. An impressive table shows the Presidential votes with the Solid South eliminated. Valuable for comparative purposes are the two other tables.

Popular Vote for President at Election of 1908.

State.	Taft, Bryan, Chaffin, Debs.	Wilson, Roosevelt, Taft.
Alabama	20,225	74,174
Arkansas	17,721	58,584
California	214,200	1,272,422
Colorado	122,750	124,664
Connecticut	112,815	412,252
Delaware	36,007	124,664
Florida	10,854	104,104
Georgia	61,922	124,664
Idaho	62,457	124,664
Illinois	229,939	1,272,422
Indiana	214,200	1,272,422
Iowa	122,750	124,664
Kansas	10,854	104,104
Kentucky	10,854	104,104
Louisiana	10,854	104,104
Maine	10,854	104,104
Massachusetts	10,854	104,104
Michigan	10,854	104,104
Minnesota	10,854	104,104
Mississippi	10,854	104,104
Missouri	10,854	104,104
Montana	10,854	104,104
Nebraska	10,854	104,104
Nevada	10,854	104,104
New Hampshire	10,854	104,104
New Jersey	10,854	104,104
New Mexico	10,854	104,104
North Carolina	10,854	104,104
North Dakota	10,854	104,104
Ohio	10,854	104,104
Oklahoma	10,854	104,104
Pennsylvania	10,854	104,104
Rhode Island	10,854	104,104
South Carolina	10,854	104,104
South Dakota	10,854	104,104
Tennessee	10,854	104,104
Texas	10,854	104,104
Utah	10,854	104,104
Vermont	10,854	104,104
Virginia	10,854	104,104
Washington	10,854	104,104
West Virginia	10,854	104,104
Wisconsin	10,854	104,104
Wyoming	10,854	104,104

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, SIXTY-THIRD CONGRESS.

Democrats	236
Republicans	122
Progressives	17

DEMOCRATIC PLURALITY OVER REPUBLICANS

Democrats	174
-----------	-----

DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY OVER ALL

Democrats	157
-----------	-----

CARRIED FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Alabama	12
Arkansas	8
California	13
Colorado	6
Connecticut	7
Delaware	4
Florida	4
Georgia	14
Idaho	4
Illinois	29
Indiana	16
Iowa	13
Kansas	10
Kentucky	13
Louisiana	10
Maine	6
Maryland	8
Massachusetts	13
Michigan	13
Minnesota	7
Mississippi	10
Missouri	18
Montana	4
Nebraska	8
Nevada	3
New Hampshire	4
New Jersey	14
New Mexico	3
New York	46
North Carolina	12
North Dakota	5
Ohio	24
Oklahoma	10
Oregon	8
Pennsylvania	35
Rhode Island	6
South Carolina	9
South Dakota	5
Tennessee	12
Texas	20
Vermont	1
Virginia	12
Washington	9
West Virginia	3
Wisconsin	13
Wyoming	3

ELECTORAL AND POPULAR VOTE FOR PRESIDENT.

	Wilson	Roosevelt	Taft	Debs	Chaffin
Alabama	12	15,000	18,000	2,000	745
Arizona	8	15,000	17,500	3,500	76
Arkansas	9	15,000	20,000	13,000	1,300
California	12	250,000	1,200,000	80,000	14,200
Colorado	6	120,000	120,000	10,000	6,200
Connecticut	7	23,000	35,000	17,000	8,200
Delaware	4	10,000	15,000	11,000	5,000
Florida	4	31,000	50,000	4,000	14,200
Georgia	14	93,000	215,000	6,000	11,300
Idaho	4	32,000	28,000	4,000	24,200
Illinois	29	497,000	3,013,000	250,000	30,900
Indiana	16	300,000	1,600,000	32,000	18,200
Iowa	13	129,000	142,000	11,000	10,400
Kansas	10	98,000	30,000	6,000	6,200
Kentucky	13	214,000	102,000	8,000	6,400
Louisiana	10	72,000	13,000	3,000	3,800
Maine	6	80,000	48,000	2,000	2,800
Maryland	8	117,000	57,000	4,000	3,800
Massachusetts	13	170,000	140,000	15,000	15,200
Michigan	13	190,000	122,000	30,000	20,000
Minnesota	7	74,000	112,000	20,000	20,000
Mississippi	10	60,000	5,000	3,000	2,000
Missouri	18	325,000	1,230,000	210,000	30,000
Montana	4	41,000	22,000	2,000	12,000
Nebraska	8	109,000	74,000	6,000	6,000
Nevada	3	8,000	6,000	3,000	4,000
New Hampshire	4	34,000	17,000	2,000	16,000
New Jersey	14	170,000	139,000	30,000	20,000
New Mexico	3	16,000	7,000	1,000	3,000
New York	46	507,000	3,240,000	450,000	50,000
North Carolina	12	147,000	147,000	11,000	11,000
North Dakota	5	60,000	20,000	3,000	3,000
Ohio	24	405,000	2,057,000	273,000	100,000
Oklahoma	10	120,000	10,000	6,000	6,000
Oregon	8	31,000	25,000	3,000	3,000
Pennsylvania	35	554,000	3,240,000	277,000	15,000
Rhode Island	6	80,000	14,000	2,000	2,000
South Carolina	9	10,000	2,000	2,000	2,000
South Dakota	5	56,000	5,000	3,000	3,000
Tennessee	12	212,000	26,000	14,000	14,000
Texas	20	284,000	210,000	4,000	3,000
Vermont	1	13,000	22,000	4,000	6,000
Virginia	12	80,000	23,000	2,000	2,000
Washington	9	91,000	7,000	1,000	4,000
West Virginia	3	32,000	8,000	1,000	8,000
Wisconsin	13	218,000	300,000	13,000	13,000
Wyoming	3	12,000	6,000	1,000	2,000

429 6291457 90 4091107 12 3437670 22 927024 28 289567

U. S. SENATE DEMOCRATIC.

The make-up of the Senate will be as follows:

Dem.	Rep.	Doubt.
Alabama	2	1
Arizona	2	1
Arkansas	2	1
California	2	2
Colorado	2	1
Connecticut	2	1
Delaware	1	1
Florida	2	1
Georgia	2	1
Idaho	2	1
Illinois	2	2
Indiana	2	1
Iowa	2	1
Kansas	2	1
Kentucky	1	1
Louisiana	2	1
Maine	1	1
Maryland	2	1
Massachusetts	2	1
Michigan	2	1
Minnesota	2	1
Mississippi	2	1
Missouri	2	1
Montana	2	1
Nebraska	2	1
Nevada	2	1
New Hampshire	2	1
New Jersey	2	1
New Mexico	2	1
New York	1	1
North Carolina	2	1
North Dakota	2	1
Ohio	1	1
Oklahoma	2	1
Pennsylvania	2	1
Rhode Island	2	1
South Carolina	2	1
South Dakota	2	1
Tennessee	1	1
Texas	2	1
Utah	2	1
Vermont	2	1
Virginia	2	1
Washington	2	1
West Virginia	1	1
Wisconsin	2	1
Wyoming	2	1

Total number, 98; necessary to a majority, 49.

Electoral Vote for President at Election of 1908.

State.	Taft, Bryan, Chaffin, Debs.	Wilson, Roosevelt, Taft.
Alabama	20,225	74,174
Arkansas	17,721	58,584
California	214,200	1,272,422
Colorado	122,750	124,664
Connecticut	112,815	412,252
Delaware	36,007	124,664
Florida	10,854	104,104
Georgia	61,922	124,664
Idaho	62,457	124,664
Illinois	229,939	1,272,422
Indiana	214,200	1,272,422
Iowa	122,750	124,664
Kansas	10,854	104,104
Kentucky	10,854	104,104
Louisiana	10,854	104,104
Maine	10,854	104,104
Massachusetts	10,854	104,104
Michigan	10,854	104,104
Minnesota	10,854	104,104
Mississippi	10,854	104,104
Missouri	10,854	104,104
Montana	10,854	104,104
Nebraska	10,854	104,104
Nevada	10,854	104,104
New Hampshire	10,854	104,104
New Jersey	10,854	104,104
New Mexico	10,854	104,104
North Carolina	10,854	104,104
North Dakota	10,854	104,104
Ohio	10,854	104,104
Oklahoma	10,854	104,104
Pennsylvania	10,854	104,104
Rhode Island	10,854	104,104
South Carolina	10,854	104,104
South Dakota	10,854	104,104
Tennessee	10,854	104,104
Texas	10,854	104,104
Utah	10,854	104,104
Vermont	10,854	104,104
Virginia	10,854	104,104
Washington	10,854	104,104
West Virginia	10,854	104,104
Wisconsin	10,854	104,104
Wyoming	10,854	104,104

POPULAR VOTE FOR PRESIDENT, WITH SOLID SOUTH ELIMINATED.

State.	Wilson	Roosevelt	Taft	Debs	Chaffin
Alabama	12	15,000	18,000	2,000	745
Arizona	8	15,000	17,500	3,500	76
Arkansas	9	15,000	20,000	13,000	1,300
California	12	250,000	1,200,000	80,000	14,200
Colorado	6	120,000	120,000	10,000	6,200
Connecticut	7	23,000	35,000	17,000	8,200
Delaware	4	10,000	15,000	11,000	5,000
Florida	4	31,000	50,000	4,000	14,200
Georgia	14	93,000	215,000	6,000	11,300
Idaho	4	32,000	28,000	4,000	24,200
Illinois	29	497,000	3,013,000	250,000	30,900
Indiana	16	300,000	1,600,000	32,000	18,200
Iowa	13	129,000	142,000	11,000	10,400
Kansas	10	98,000	30,000	6,000	6,200
Kentucky	13	214,000	102,000	8,000	6,400
Louisiana	10	72,000	13,000	3,000	3,800
Maine	6	80,000	48,000	2,000	2,800
Maryland	8	117,000	57,000	4,000	3,800
Massachusetts	13	170,000	140,000	15,000	15,200
Michigan	13	190,000	122,000	30,000	20,000
Minnesota	7	74,000	112,000	20,000	20,000
Mississippi	10	60,000	5,000	3,000	2,000
Missouri	18	325,000	1,230,000	210,000	30,000
Montana	4	41,000	22,000	2,000	12,000
Nebraska	8	109,000	74,000	6,000	6,000
Nevada	3	8,000	6,000	3,000	4,000
New Hampshire	4	34,000	17,000	2,000	16,000
New Jersey	14	170,000	139,000	30,000	20,000
New Mexico	3	16,000	7,000	1,000	3,000
New York	46	507,000	3,240,000	450,000	50,000
North Carolina	12	147,000	147,000	11,000	11,000
North Dakota	5	60,000	20,000	3,000	3,000
Ohio	24	405,000	2,057,000	273,000	100,000
Oklahoma	10	120,000	10,000	6,000	6,000
Oregon	8	31,000	25,000	3,000	3,000
Pennsylvania	35	554,000	3,240,000	277,000	15,000
Rhode Island	6	80,000	14,000	2,000	2,000
South Carolina	9	10,000	2,000	2,000	2,000
South Dakota	5	56,000	5,000	3,000	3,000
Tennessee	12	212,000	26,000	14,000	14,000
Texas	20	284,000	210,000	4,000	3,000

MOLLY McDONALD

A TALE OF THE FRONTIER

By RANDALL PARRISH
Author of "Keith of the Border," "My Lady of Doubt," "My Lady of the South," etc. etc.

Illustrations by J. L. Barnes

CHAPTER XVII.

At Cross-Purposes.
She sat for a moment silent, gazing up the street, but breathing heavily. This was not the reception she had anticipated, and it was difficult to determine swiftly what course she had best pursue. Realizing the hold she had once had upon this man, it had never occurred to her mind that her influence had altogether departed. Her beauty had never faded before to win such victory, and she had trusted now in reviving the old smouldering passion into sudden flame. Yet already she comprehended the utter uselessness of such an expectation—there was no smouldering passion to be fanned; his indifference was not assumed. The discovery angered her, but long experience had brought control; it required only a moment to readjust her faculties, to keep the bitterness out of her voice. When she again faced him it was to speak quietly, with convincing earnestness.

"Yes, I realize it is too late for explanations," she acknowledged, "so I will attempt none. I wished you to know, however, that I did not desert you for that man. This was my principal purpose in coming for you."

"Do you know where he is?"

She hesitated ever so slightly, yet he, watching her closely, noted it. "No; at the close of the war he came home, commanding the regiment which should have been yours. Within three months he had converted all the family property into cash and departed. There was a rumor that he was engaged in the cattle business."

"You actually expect me to believe all this—that you knew nothing of his plans—were not, indeed, a part of them?"

"I am indifferent as to what you believe," she replied coldly. "But you are ungentlemanly to express yourself so freely. Why should you say that?"

"Because I chance to know more than you suppose. Never mind how the information reached me; had it been less authentic you might find me now more susceptible to your presence, more choosy in my language. A carefully conceived plot drove me from the Confederate service, in which you were so deeply involved as to leave me no doubt of my own part in it."

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"To leave me no doubt of my own part in it?"

"You are very excusable. No doubt I have been here longer than I supposed." The officer's eyes surveyed the soldier standing erect, his hand lifted in salute. The situation puzzled him. "Sergeant Hamlin, how are you here? On leave?"

"Yes, sir." "Of course this is rather unusual," Captain Barrett, said the lady lastly, tapping the astonished officer lightly with her fan, "but I was once quite well acquainted with Sergeant Hamlin when he was a major of the Fourth Texas Infantry during the late war. He and my husband were intimates. Naturally I was delighted to meet him again."

The captain stared at the man's rigid figure. "Good Lord, I never knew that Hamlin," he exclaimed. "Glad to know it, my man. You see," he explained lamely, "we got all kinds of fellows in the ranks, and are not interested in their past history. I've had Hamlin under my command for two years now, and I know anything about him, except that he was a good soldier. Were you ready to go, Mrs. Dupont?"

"Oh, yes; we have exhausted all our reminiscences. Goodby, Sergeant; so glad to have met you again."

"She extended her ungloved hand, a single diamond glittering in the light. He accepted it silently, aware of the slight pressure of her fingers. Then

"Some Soldier Asleep, With His Head on the Rail."

The captain assisted her through the window, and the falling curtain veiled them from view.

CHAPTER XVIII.

Another Message.
Hamlin sank back on the bench and leaned his head on his hand. Had any thing been accomplished by this interview? One thing, at least—he had thoroughly demonstrated that the charms once exercised over his imagination by this beautiful woman had completely vanished. He saw her now as she was—heartless, selfish, using her spell of beauty for her own sordid ends. If there had been left a shred of romance in his memory of her, it was now completely shattered. Her coolness, her adroit changing of moods, convinced him she was playing a game. What game? Nothing in her words had revealed its nature, yet the man instinctively felt that it must involve Molly McDonald. Laboriously he reviewed, word by word, each sentence exchanged, striving to find some clue. It had pricked her in the Gaskins affair, there was no doubt of that; she knew, or at least suspected, the party firing the shot. She denied at first having been married to Le Fevre, and yet later had been compelled to acknowledge that marriage. There then was a deliberate falsehood, which must have been told for a purpose. What purpose? Did she imagine it would make any difference with him, or did she seek to shield Le Fevre from discovery? The latter reason appeared the more probable, for the man must have been in the neighborhood lately, else where did that haversack come from?

So engrossed was Hamlin with these thoughts that he hardly realized that some one had lifted the window curtain cautiously. The beam of light flashed across him, disappearing before he could lift his head to ascertain the cause. Then a voice spoke, and he leaned back to listen.

"Not there; gone back to the dance likely, while we were at the bar."

"Nobody out there?" this fellow growled his words.

"Some soldier asleep with his head on the rail; drunk, I reckon. Who was she with this time?"

"Barrett?"

"Who? Oh, yes, the fellow who brought in that troop of the Seventh Lord, the old girl is getting her hooks into him early. Well, as long as Gaskins is laid up, she may as well amuse herself somewhere else. Barrett is rather a good looking, isn't he? Do you know anything about the man? Has he got any stuff?"

"Don't know," answered the gruff voice. "He's a West Pointer. Vera likes to amuse herself once in a while; that's the woman of it. Heard from Gaskins tonight?"

"Oh, he's all right," the man laughed. "That little prick frightened him though. Shut up like a clam."

"So I heard. He'll pay to keep the story quiet, all right. As soon as he is well enough to come down here, we'll tap his bundle. Swore he was shot by a cavalry sergeant, didn't he?"

"And sticks to it like a mule. Well, it helped it in for that fellow. Well, it helped our get-away."

"Yes, we're safe enough, unless Gaskins talks, and he's so in love with the McDonald girl he'll spill out big rather than have any scandal now. Wish I could eat a word with Vera tonight; she ought to see him tomorrow—compassion, womanly sympathy, and all that rot, you know, helps the game. Let's drift over toward the Palace, Dan, and maybe I can give her the sign."

Hamlin caught a glimpse of their backs as they passed out—one in infantry fatigue, the other, a heavier built man, fairly well dressed in civilian clothes. Inspired by a desire to see their features the Sergeant swung himself over the rail, and dropped lightly to the ground. In another moment he was out on the street, in front of the hotel, watching the open door. The two passed within a few feet of him, clearly revealed in the light streaming from the dance hall. The soldier lagged somewhat behind, an insignificant, rat-faced fellow, but the larger man walked straight, with squared shoulders. He wore a broad-brimmed hat pulled low over his eyes, and a black beard concealed the lower portion of his face. Hamlin followed as the two pushed their way up among the idle crowds congregated on the wooden steps, and peered in through the wide doorway. Satisfied that he would recognize both worthies when they met again, and realizing now something of the plot being operated, Hamlin edged in closer toward the sergeant who was guarding the entrance. The latter recognized him with a nod.

"Pretty busy, Masters?"

"Have been, but there will be a lull now; when they come back from supper there'll be another rush likely. Would you mind taking my job a minute while I go outside?"

"Not in the least; take your time. Let me see what the tickets look like. That's all right—say, Masters, before you go, do you know that big duffer with a black beard in the front line?"

"The other gave a quick glance down the faces."

"I've seen him before; dealt faro at the Poodle Dog a while; said to be a gun-man. Never heard his name. Oh, yes, come to think about it, they called him 'Reb'—Confed soldier, I reckon. Ain't seen him before for a month. Got into some kind of a shootin' scrap up at Mike Kelly's and skipped out ahead of the marshal. Why?"

"Nothing particular—looks familiar, that's all. Who's the soldier behind him—the thin-faced runt?"

"Connors. Some river-rat the recruiting officers picked up in New York; in the guard-house most of the time; driver for Major McDonald when he happens to be sober enough."

"That is where I saw him then, driving the ladies. Know I had seen that mug before."

(To be Continued.)

CHAPTER XVIII.

Another Message.

Hamlin sank back on the bench and leaned his head on his hand. Had any thing been accomplished by this interview? One thing, at least—he had thoroughly demonstrated that the charms once exercised over his imagination by this beautiful woman had completely vanished. He saw her now as she was—heartless, selfish, using her spell of beauty for her own sordid ends. If there had been left a shred of romance in his memory of her, it was now completely shattered. Her coolness, her adroit changing of moods, convinced him she was playing a game. What game? Nothing in her words had revealed its nature, yet the man instinctively felt that it must involve Molly McDonald. Laboriously he reviewed, word by word, each sentence exchanged, striving to find some clue. It had pricked her in the Gaskins affair, there was no doubt of that; she knew, or at least suspected, the party firing the shot. She denied at first having been married to Le Fevre, and yet later had been compelled to acknowledge that marriage. There then was a deliberate falsehood, which must have been told for a purpose. What purpose? Did she imagine it would make any difference with him, or did she seek to shield Le Fevre from discovery? The latter reason appeared the more probable, for the man must have been in the neighborhood lately, else where did that haversack come from?

So engrossed was Hamlin with these thoughts that he hardly realized that some one had lifted the window curtain cautiously. The beam of light flashed across him, disappearing before he could lift his head to ascertain the cause. Then a voice spoke, and he leaned back to listen.

"Not there; gone back to the dance likely, while we were at the bar."

"Nobody out there?" this fellow growled his words.

"Some soldier asleep with his head on the rail; drunk, I reckon. Who was she with this time?"

"Barrett?"

"Who? Oh, yes, the fellow who brought in that troop of the Seventh Lord, the old girl is getting her hooks into him early. Well, as long as Gaskins is laid up, she may as well amuse herself somewhere else. Barrett is rather a good looking, isn't he? Do you know anything about the man? Has he got any stuff?"

"Don't know," answered the gruff voice. "He's a West Pointer. Vera likes to amuse herself once in a while; that's the woman of it. Heard from Gaskins tonight?"

"Oh, he's all right," the man laughed. "That little prick frightened him though. Shut up like a clam."

"So I heard. He'll pay to keep the story quiet, all right. As soon as he is well enough to come down here, we'll tap his bundle. Swore he was shot by a cavalry sergeant, didn't he?"

"And sticks to it like a mule. Well, it helped it in for that fellow. Well, it helped our get-away."

"Yes, we're safe enough, unless Gaskins talks, and he's so in love with the McDonald girl he'll spill out big rather than have any scandal now. Wish I could eat a word with Vera

tonight; she ought to see him tomorrow—compassion, womanly sympathy, and all that rot, you know, helps the game. Let's drift over toward the Palace, Dan, and maybe I can give her the sign."

Hamlin caught a glimpse of their backs as they passed out—one in infantry fatigue, the other, a heavier built man, fairly well dressed in civilian clothes. Inspired by a desire to see their features the Sergeant swung himself over the rail, and dropped lightly to the ground. In another moment he was out on the street, in front of the hotel, watching the open door. The two passed within a few feet of him, clearly revealed in the light streaming from the dance hall. The soldier lagged somewhat behind, an insignificant, rat-faced fellow, but the larger man walked straight, with squared shoulders. He wore a broad-brimmed hat pulled low over his eyes, and a black beard concealed the lower portion of his face. Hamlin followed as the two pushed their way up among the idle crowds congregated on the wooden steps, and peered in through the wide doorway. Satisfied that he would recognize both worthies when they met again, and realizing now something of the plot being operated, Hamlin edged in closer toward the sergeant who was guarding the entrance. The latter recognized him with a nod.

"Pretty busy, Masters?"

"Have been, but there will be a lull now; when they come back from supper there'll be another rush likely. Would you mind taking my job a minute while I go outside?"

"Not in the least; take your time. Let me see what the tickets look like. That's all right—say, Masters, before you go, do you know that big duffer with a black beard in the front line?"

"The other gave a quick glance down the faces."

"I've seen him before; dealt faro at the Poodle Dog a while; said to be a gun-man. Never heard his name. Oh, yes, come to think about it, they called him 'Reb'—Confed soldier, I reckon. Ain't seen him before for a month. Got into some kind of a shootin' scrap up at Mike Kelly's and skipped out ahead of the marshal. Why?"

"Nothing particular—looks familiar, that's all. Who's the soldier behind him—the thin-faced runt?"

"Connors. Some river-rat the recruiting officers picked up in New York; in the guard-house most of the time; driver for Major McDonald when he happens to be sober enough."

"That is where I saw him then, driving the ladies. Know I had seen that mug before."

(To be Continued.)

CHAPTER XVIII.

Another Message.

Hamlin sank back on the bench and leaned his head on his hand. Had any thing been accomplished by this interview? One thing, at least—he had thoroughly demonstrated that the charms once exercised over his imagination by this beautiful woman had completely vanished. He saw her now as she was—heartless, selfish, using her spell of beauty for her own sordid ends. If there had been left a shred of romance in his memory of her, it was now completely shattered. Her coolness, her adroit changing of moods, convinced him she was playing a game. What game? Nothing in her words had revealed its nature, yet the man instinctively felt that it must involve Molly McDonald. Laboriously he reviewed, word by word, each sentence exchanged, striving to find some clue. It had pricked her in the Gaskins affair, there was no doubt of that; she knew, or at least suspected, the party firing the shot. She denied at first having been married to Le Fevre, and yet later had been compelled to acknowledge that marriage. There then was a deliberate falsehood, which must have been told for a purpose. What purpose? Did she imagine it would make any difference with him, or did she seek to shield Le Fevre from discovery? The latter reason appeared the more probable, for the man must have been in the neighborhood lately, else where did that haversack come from?

So engrossed was Hamlin with these thoughts that he hardly realized that some one had lifted the window curtain cautiously. The beam of light flashed across him, disappearing before he could lift his head to ascertain the cause. Then a voice spoke, and he leaned back to listen.

"Not there; gone back to the dance likely, while we were at the bar."

"Nobody out there?" this fellow growled his words.

"Some soldier asleep with his head on the rail; drunk, I reckon. Who was she with this time?"

"Barrett?"

The Stage and The Players.

Ian Robertson in "The Passing of the Third Floor Back."

THE SOISSON.

TRAVEL FESTIVAL TONIGHT.

The glory of the whole hunt is vanishing rapidly. A few years ago 70,000 persons and a capital of over $70,000,000 were directly engaged in whaling, but where a whaler averaged 120 whales annually 40 years ago, today (the same ship would average only nine. The whales were being exterminated so fast that the industry is now on the verge of extinction. Then, too, the pursuit has fallen off because science has found better substitutes for all that whales once supplied. Considering these facts the reproduction of a whale hunt which Lyman H. Howe will present at the Soisson theatre tonight is invaluable as it will be impossible to secure such scenes in the near future when whaling will have become another of the "lost arts."

Mr. Ian Robertson says "I am satisfied that the teaching of this play, 'The Passing of the Third Floor Back,' has been most helpful to me. It is not because I am acting the part, but because I am listening to its teachings and putting them into practice, and because I am in the enjoyment of it and seeing its results. I practice the golf and other things, and I find it much more change back."

"While we were in Chicago an interesting incident which, I believe, is also unique occurred. Two brothers played the same part in the same play on the same night in the same city in two different theatres, and the two brothers were Johnnie Forbes-Robertson and myself. He was appearing with us in 'The Third Floor Back' in Chicago, and, at his request, I and my company opened in another theatre which happened to be empty."

Ian Robertson and his talented company come to the Soisson theatre tomorrow night.

"THE SPRING MAID."

Composer Edmund Romhardt, the gifted Viennese writer of "The Spring Maid," which comes to the Soisson, matinee and night, Saturday, November 16, has lived a life full of romance and adventure. He was born in 1845, in Germany. His family wealth made it unnecessary for him to do anything, but his love for music made him, at the age of 16, run away from his father's house and obtain work as a violinist at Stuttgart Grand Opera House.

Even then he was composing fragments of quaint effectiveness—in fact, Horst Reinhardt is today better known through Europe for the large number of short musical sketches he has put forth than for his operas. It is likely that more than half of the musical one-act playlets that are so generally played over Continental Europe are his work. He was recognized as a composer of much humor written in a strictly technical manner, and his two grand operas which were sung at the Berlin Grand Opera House under the patronage of His Imperial Majesty the Kaiser were great successes. It was in this first opera-comique, however, known as "Die Süsser Madel" (The Sweet Girl) that he came into his own, and his later works are eagerly awaited.

He has recently followed his successful "Spring Maid" with a new opera for which he wrote both the book and the music, and reports from Vienna indicate that it will prove a continental triumph.

THE COLONIAL.

ALIAS JIMMY VALENTINE.

Theatrical interest centers deeply in the forthcoming engagement of "Alias Jimmy Valentine" at the Colonial Theatre, Saturday, matinee and night, one of the surest hits in a decade. In this remarkable play which has been running two years in New York, the leading character is a professional safe-breaker, who has trained his finger tips to such a degree of sensitiveness, that he can detect the fall of the lever in a safe or vault by his sense of touch, thus being able to open it regardless of his ignorance of the combinations. The first act finds this trained criminal in Sing Sing prison, where a fortunate train of circumstances wins for him the gubernatorial pardon, and also puts him on the straight road to reform. Through the kindness of influential friends whom he has been able to benefit, the former bank-robber is given a responsible position in a national bank. There, by honest and efficient service, he soon works his way near the top of the ladder, when a child, having accidentally been shut in a new vault, the combination of which has not yet been determined, he is forced to choose between a life and his secret. The play is founded on a short story by the late O. Henry, called "A Retrieved Reformation." It is written in the straightforward manner of all Paul Armstrong's plays, and in the most successful manner that prolific author ever wrote, which, considering that the "Heir to the Throne" and "Salome Jane," and the "Deep Purple" came from his pen, is a statement to which much weight is to be attached.

Apples! Apples!

Just received a car of the apples. Come and see them in car at Scottsboro freight station. Price reasonable. Ben Glassner—Adv.

Classified ads one cent a word.

"Will You Deny It Now?"

terness, why did you come here? Why consent to meet me again?"

"My yielding was to a second impulse. At first I decided to ignore your note; then came the second consideration—Miss McDonald."

"Oh," and she laughed, "at last the riddle. Not satisfied with saying that young lady from savagery you would also preserve her youthful innocence from the contamination of my influence. Quite noble of you, surely. Are you aware of our relationship?"

"I have heard it referred to—garble rumor."

"Quite true, in spite of your source of information, which accounts, in a measure, for my presence here as well as my intimacy in the McDonald household. And you propose interference, plan to drive me forth from this pleasant bird's nest. Really you amuse me, Mr. Sergeant Hamlin."

"But I have not proposed anything of that nature," the man said quietly, rising to his feet. "It is, of course, nothing to me, except that Miss McDonald has been very kind and seems a very nice girl. As I knew something of you and your past, I thought perhaps you might realize how much better it would be to retire gracefully."

"You mean that as a threat? You intend to tell her?"

"Not unless it becomes necessary; I am not proud of the story myself."

Their eyes met, and there was no shadow of softness in either face. The woman's lips curled sarcastically. "Really, you take yourself quite seriously, do you not? One might think you still Major of the Fourth Texas, and heir to the old estate on the Brazos. You talked that way to me once before, only to discover that I had claws with which to scratch. Don't make that mistake again, Mr. Sergeant Hamlin, or there will be something more serious than scratching done. I have learned how to fight in the past few years—Heaven knows I have had opportunity—and rather enjoy the excitement. How far would your word go with Molly, do you think? Or with the Major?"

"That remains to be seen."

"Does it? Oh, I understand. You must still consider yourself quite the lady-killer. Well, let me tell you something—she is engaged to Lieutenant Gaskins."

His hand-grip tightened on the rail, but there was no change in the expression of his face.

"So I had heard. I presume that hardly would have been permitted to happen but for the existence of a Mr. Dupont. By the way, which one of you ladies shot the Lieutenant?"

It was a chance fire, and Hamlin was not sure of its effect, although she drew a quick breath, and her voice faltered.

"Shot—Lieutenant Gaskins?"

"Certainly; you must be aware of that."

"Oh, I knew he had some altercation, and was wounded; he accused you, did he not? But why bring us into the affair?"

"Because some woman was directly concerned in it. Whoever she may be, the officers of the fort are convinced that she probably fired the shot; that the Lieutenant knows her identity, and is endeavoring to shield her from discovery."

"Why do you think that? What reason can they have for such a conclusion? Was she seen?"

"Her footprints were plainly visible, and the revolver used was a small one—a .25—such as a woman alone would carry in this country. I have said so to no one else, but I saw her, crouching in the shadow of the back wall."

"You—you saw her? Recognized her?"

"Yes."

"And made no attempt at arrest? Have not even mentioned the fact to others? You must have a reason?"

"I have, Mrs. Dupont, but we will not discuss it now. I merely wish you to comprehend that if it is to be war between us, I am in possession of weapons."

She had not lost control of herself, yet there was that about her hesitancy of speech, her quick breathing, which evidenced her surprise at this discovery. It told him that he had played a good hand, had found a point of weakness in her armor. The mystery of it remained unsolved, but this woman knew who had shot Gaskins; knew, and had every reason to guard the secret. He felt her eyes anxiously searching his face, and laughed a little bitterly.

"You yourself, madam," he went on, encouraged by her silence, "I am not now exactly the same unassuming youth with whom you played so easily years ago. I have learned some of life's lessons since; among them how to fight fire with fire. It is a trick of the palms. Do you still consider it necessary for your happiness to remain the guest of the McDonalds?"

She straightened up, turning her eyes away.

"Probably not for long, but it is no threat of yours which influences me. It does not even interest me to know who shot Lieutenant Gaskins. He is a vulgar little prig, only made possible by the possession of money. However, when I decide to depart, I shall probably do so without consulting your pleasure." She hesitated, her voice softening as though in change of mood. "Yet I should prefer parting with you in friendship. In asking you to meet me tonight I had no intention of quarrelling; merely yielded to an impulse of regret for the past."

The heavy curtain drawing the window was drawn aside, permitting the light from within to flash upon them, revealing the figure of a man in uniform.

"Pardon my interruption," he explained, bowing, "but you were gone so long, Mrs. Dupont, I feared some accident."

She laughed lightly.

Drives Out CATARRH.

No More Blowing, Snuffing or Morning Hawking to Dislodge Mucus, When You Breathe Germ Destroying HYOMEI.

HYOMEI (pronounced it High-o-mey) is guaranteed to end the misery of catarrh of the nose or throat, and soon hawking and snuffing will cease.

Breathe it and crust will no longer form in the nose; mucus will not lodge in the throat; all inflammation will leave the membrane of the nose and throat, and your head and feet clear and fine.

Breathe it for coughs, colds and sore throat, its soothing, healing, antiseptic action is better than all the stomach dos

Try our classified advertisements.

The Workingman's Family Barber Shop
SOLICITS YOUR PATRONAGE.
R. VINCENT RENDINE, ST. JAMES HOTEL.
Self-Shavers' Accessories for Sale.

COUPON
November 13, 1912.
Y COURIER

MR. IAN Robertson

And His Original London Company in Jerome K. Jerome's Wonderful Play,

"THE PASSING
OF THE THIRD FLOOR BACK."

The most remarkable play of five centuries.—New York Herald.

(Women's Section, Second Floor, Wright, Metzler Company.

Blankets: Comforts
At special and regular prices—those marked
"regular" being of a superior quality to any in town at the prices we ask.

of Table Linen and Decorative Pieces (Next Week.)

THE DAILY COURIER

Our Classified Advertisements Bring Results. Have You Tried Them?